Planetary Period: Mars

From 3 Oct 2009 to 4 Oct 2010

Age 63.0yrs to 64.0yrs

You have just left the favourable rays of the planet Jupiter and entered into the planetary influence of the planet Mars. This feisty planet rules Mars rules individuality, independence, passion, courage, sports, vigour, aggression, survival and also sexuality. Therefore for the next seven years these traits will be more prominent in your life. It is time for a change of direction. The past decade has been a time of expanding your horizons through study, travel, teaching or other avenues that promote your well being. Now you need to consolidate on the past and actively pursue your ambitions. If you are on not careful then this could spark conflict if you push too hard or if others are not accustomed to you being assertive. You have a right to state your desires. As long as you act with integrity and are not too aggressive then your friend, colleagues and loved ones are likely to co-operate. Nevertheless beware the damage that can be wrought by those who are threatened by your newfound independence or who judge you lacking in uprightness.

If you are 32 then you are likely to enjoy hard work with an abundance of energy to apply to chosen tasks. Make sure that you don't overdo it. Otherwise you are likely to burn out. Tiredness or ill health are signals that you need to take time out for rest and recreation. A long journey may be beneficial, but not to dangerous parts of the world.

If you are 63 then you may be experiencing a new burst of energy as you retire from the work force and discover new ventures.

Planetary Period: Mars subperiod The Sun

From 4 Oct 2010 to 4 Oct 2011

Age 64.0yrs to 65.0yrs

The time has come for you to reassess your goals.

If you are 33 then you may feel driven to achieve your personal goals or to shine in one area of your life. However, you need to proceed cautiously. Right now you have excess energy. It is important to focus on important matters without going overboard. If you do not consider other people then you may experience some difficulties during this period because you are alienating rather than inspiring those around you. If you try to push your way of doing things onto others, then those closest to you may withdraw their support. Try to consider other people and direct your energy into projects and plans that have a higher purpose than simply your personal ambitions. Then you will truly shine.

If you are 64 then you are also well advised to try to enlist the co-operation of others in order to fulfil your needs. You may value independence and freedom right now, but you won't always be so keen to enjoy your own company.

Planetary Period: Mars subperiod Venus

From 4 Oct 2011 to 3 Oct 2012

Age 65.0yrs to 66.0yrs

It is time to discover your passion. On a daily basis this means that you are likely to seek simple pleasures such as listening to inspiring music, visiting art galleries or having fun with friends. On a more significant note, you can also now focus on deeper motivating forces. You may discover a talent, project or pastime that consumes you. This may have long reaching affects, changing your path in life as you reassess your options.

If you are 34 then you need to be wary of your sexual appetites. If you are happily married and enjoying an active sex life then your passions are inflamed and you are happy. However, if you are experiencing some frustration then you are very vulnerable to a sexual affair right now. If you are single then you may fall ardently in love during this period. If so, you need to ensure that your lover can fulfill more than your sexual needs. Right now excitement takes precedence, but this will pass. At the end of this phase you will need to make decisions so try to retain your emotional equilibrium. You are also well advised to see if you cannot ignite passion in another area of your life. Working hard to improve your income can be fruitful as long as you do not alienate others in the process. However, you may discover a passion for a cause or hobby that takes your life in a positive direction.

At 65 it is time for you to enjoy yourself. Your sexual appetite may suddenly increase surprising you and your partner or, if you are single, then you may pursue a romance. You are keen to share pleasure and games with other people, and yet also to take stock of your finances.
