

Contents

The Astrological Journal March/April 2017 Volume 59 No.2

Why do the charts of Capt. America and Dracula work?

- 25 Simão Cortês examines the horoscopes of fictional people

The Ptolemaic Bounds

- 56 Tania Daniels explains an important feature of traditional astrology

Leonard Cohen: the astro-biography

- 17 John Etherington explores the life of the late singer-songwriter and poet

Columns

- 07 Frank C. Clifford's Data News: educator Lady Marie Stubbs
- 24 Anne Whitaker's Not the Astrology Column: the millennials
- 32 Pam Crane's Sign language special: a new chart for the USA capital?
- 36 Marjorie Orr's World Astrology: UK's new EU ambassador Sir Tim Barrow
- 37 Roy Gillett's Working with the Planets: changing 'populist' times
- 69 Sarah Cochrane's transits for Mar-Apr 2017

Features

- 08 Hit sci-fi movie Arrival's alien language oddly resembles astrology, discovers Tim Burness
- 11 The Sky at Night is 60. Liz Hargreaves on the BBC TV astronomy show's chart
- 15 What's wrong with the 13-sign lunar zodiac? By Helena Paterson
- 29 Just a little broken: George Michael RIP. By Christina Rodenbeck
- 41 Marine Le Pen and 21° Aquarius: Smiljana Gavrančić on the French election
- 44 Uranus in space exploration charts. By Jonathon Clark
- 51 "How did you come to astrology," part 2: Wade Caves interviews more astrologers
- 61 The 'Celestial' watch that sold for £463,000
- 62 The Jupiter-Uranus effect in real life: Anne Whitaker interviewed
- 66 Derivative houses: Marguerite dar Boggia on Annie Besant and her family
- 71 Astro X-Ray interview: Rod Chang

Regulars

- 03 Editor's letter
- 04 In the astro news
- 23 Letters
- 31 Astrology events diary 2017
- 68 Bookshelf: Astrid Fallon's Graphic Ephemeris
- 70 Pam Crane's unique Astro Crossword